

Protecting our Bottomland Forests and Waterways

Art Contest

Open to K-12 Students

Deadline May 8, 2009

In honor of the establishment of the Dow Woods Unit of San Bernard National Wildlife Refuge

Contest Rules

The Dow Woods Unit is located in the Columbia Bottomland Ecosystem north of Lake Jackson, Texas. Artwork should depict wildlife or plants found in the bottomland forest of Brazoria County. Completed artwork must be 9" by 12". Students should not sign on the front of artwork. On the back of artwork legibly write the student's name, student's phone number, school, teacher's name, and grade level. Mail or deliver artwork to the Texas Mid-Coast National Wildlife Refuge Complex office at 2547 CR 316, Brazoria, TX 77422. For more information visit the Friends of Brazoria Wildlife Refuges website at www.refugefriends.org or call the Complex at 979-964-4011.

Artwork will be displayed during the dedication of the Dow Woods Unit scheduled for May 16, 2009